Emerging Nurse Leader Clinical Summit

The Northwest Organization of Nurse Executives is hosting an eight part leadership series for all emerging nurse leaders. This series targets topics that will enhance the knowledge and growth of the Emerging Nurse Leader. The topics that will be covered in sequence include:

- Self-Leadership: Discovering the Leader Within presented by Alison Zecha
- Team Leadership and Project Management presented by Catherine Broom
- Human Resource Management and Labor Relations presented by Jennifer Graves
- Quality Management: Moving from “Good Enough” to Excellent presented by Joanie Ching
- Financial Management, Staffing, Scheduling and Budgeting presented by Barbara Hyland-Hill and Cathe Clapp
- Regulatory Legislative Compliance presented by Gladys Campbell & State Nursing Commission Representatives
- Clinical Ethics and the Creation of Just Culture presented by Kate Payne
- Creating a Professional Practice Environment presented by Cathy Whitaker

Location

NWONE will be hosting repeat sessions of each workshop in Portland, OR, Seattle, WA and Wenatchee, WA. For additional location information please see the schedule located on the reverse side of this brochure.

Registration Fees

Individuals may enroll for the selected workshops of their choice, or may enroll in the full educational series at a reduced rate. We believe the greatest benefit is for individuals to attend the full series and to couple this education with local level mentorship for maximal benefit. The additional value of attendance in the full series is realized from the relationships and professional networking that will naturally develop within a cohort of consistent attendees.

Individual Workshop Rate:

NWONE Member	$100/workshop
Non-Member	$125/workshop

Discounted Series Rate:

NWONE Member	$700/entire series
Non-Member	$900/entire series
